An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out by such person in accordance with such plan. The trading plan would be subject to the following conditions:

- (a) No Trading can be commenced pursuant to the trading plan, until a period of one hundred and twenty calendar days has elapsed from the public disclosure of the plan.
- (b) The trading plan cannot overlap with any period for which another trading plan is already in existence for such person.
- (c) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - (ii) nature of the trade;
 - (iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - (iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below: I)
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.

Setting out the price limit as per sub-clause (iv) above is optional, however, if the Insider has set a price limit for a trade, the trade shall be executed only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

Provided further that if the designated person has set a price limit for a trade the Insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the Designated Person the trade shall not be executed. Insider may make adjustments, with the approval of the compliance officer, in the number of securities and price limit in the event of corporate actions related to bonus issue and stock split occurring after the approval of trading plan and the same shall be notified on the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.

- (d) The trading plan cannot entail Trading in securities for market abuse.
- (e) The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and such person shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.
- (f) The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Applicable Law and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment to approve and monitor the implementation of the trading plan.
- (g) The requirement with respect to pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Further, trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not commence, if any UPSI in possession of any Designated Person at the time of formulation of the trading plan has not become generally available at the time of commencement of implementation of the trading plan.

Explanation: In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan due to either reasons enumerated or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:

- (i) The designated person shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.
- (ii) Upon receipt of information from such person, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not.
- (iii) The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer on the same day to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.
- (iv) In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by such person, then the compliance officer shall take action as per the Code of Conduct.

The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

The trading plan shall be prepared and submitted in the format set out in Annexure 1.

12. PROCEDURE FOR PRE-CLEARANCE FOR TRADES WHEN TRADING WINDOW IS OPEN:

Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives intending to deal in the securities of the Company up to the limit fixed by the Board of Directors (i.e., securities valuing upto ten lakh rupees) in one calendar quarter in one or more tranches may do so without any clearance from the Compliance Officer. In other cases, they should follow the following procedure:-

- (i) Make an application to the Compliance Officer in the form set out in Annexure 2 for pre-clearance of the transaction if the threshold limit is likely to be exceeded as a result of the transaction.
- (ii) Execute a declaration in favour of the Company in the prescribed form set out in Annexure 3. The Compliance Officer shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

- (iii) The proposed transaction can be carried out only after receiving appropriate clearance from the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form set out in Annexure 4.
- (iv) The execution of the order in respect of the securities of the Company for which pre-clearance has been obtained will have to be completed within 7 (seven) trading days of such approval of pre-clearance failing which fresh clearance would need to be obtained. Within 2 (two) trading days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal, should be filed with the Compliance Officer in the form set out in Annexure 5. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed in the form set out in Annexure 5 within 2 (two) trading days of the transaction not undertaken.
- (v) Designated Persons who are permitted to buy or sell any number of securities of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e., sell or buy any number of securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. The said restriction may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording the reasons thereof post receipt of application in the form set out in Annexure 6. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act. Provided that this contra trade restriction shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
- (vi) All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the securities of the Company at any time
- (vii) Trading in securities by the Compliance Officer shall require pre-clearance from Managing Director or Whole time director.
- (viii) Transactions shall not be permitted in the period when the Trading Window is closed. The Trading Window norms and pre-clearance requirements shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved Trading Plan.
- (ix) Designated Person in possession of UPSI shall not apply for any preclearance even if the Trading Window is not closed.
- (x) Pre-clearance will, also be required in respect of pledge of securities of the Company/ release of pledged securities of the Company.

13. THRESHOLD LIMIT AND DISCLOSURES:

Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives (through the Designated Persons) shall make the following disclosures of Securities held in the Company by them to the Compliance Officer.

13.1 Personal Information:

Designated Persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- (a) Immediate Relatives;
- (b) persons with whom such Designated Person(s) shares a material financial relationship;
Explanation—The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated person during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person, but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.”*

In addition, Designated Persons shall be required to disclose the following information to the Company:

- (c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them (on an annual basis and as when the information changes);
- (d) Names of educational institutions from which Designated Persons have graduated (to be disclosed on a one-time basis);
- (e) Names of their past employers (to be disclosed on a one-time basis); and
- (f) Number of securities of the company acquired, disposed-off during the year and the value of such securities.

13.2 Initial Disclosures:

Disclosure to be made of the holding of securities of the Company by every person on appointment as a KMP or a Director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group as on the date of appointment, to the company within 7 days of such appointment or becoming a promoter in the format set out in Annexure 7A.

13.3 Continual Disclosure:

Disclosure should be made to the Company by every promoter, member of the promoter group, Designated Person and director of the Company about the number of such securities acquired or disposed of by them or their Immediate Relatives (in the aggregate) within 2 trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. 10 lacs or such other value in the form set out in Annexure 7B.

The above continual disclosures shall be made in such form and such manner as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.

Explanation: It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this clause, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in this clause.

Further, pursuant to SEBI circular SEBI/HO/ISD/ISD/CIR/P/2020/168 dated September 09, 2020, SEBI has implemented system driven disclosures with effect from October 01, 2020 which shall run parallel with existing manual based disclosures till March 31, 2021. Therefore, manual disclosure under this sub-clause by the designated persons will not be required.

However, the existing procedure shall continue without exemption for trading by immediate relatives of designated persons.

13.4 Off-market trades by Insider:

Every Insider shall disclose the off-market trades done by him/her to the Company within 2 (two) working days of such transaction.

The Compliance Officer shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

13.5 Disclosure by other Connected Persons

The Company may at its discretion require any other Connected Person or class of Connected Persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in the format set out in Annexure 7C.

14. PROTECTION OF THE INFORMANT:

The Company will not take any adverse action such as, discharge, termination, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment, directly or indirectly or discrimination, against any employee because of his/her filing of a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form with SEBI regarding Insider trading, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by SEBI or he/she is eligible for a Reward under PIT regulations, by reason of:

- (i) filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under PIT Regulations;
- (ii) testifying in, participating in, or otherwise assisting or aiding SEBI in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of insider trading laws or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by SEBI; or
- (iii) breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement solely to prevent any employee from cooperating with SEBI in any manner.

15. PENALTIES FOR CONTRAVENTION:

- 15.1 Persons governed by this Code who trade in securities or communicate any information for trading in securities in contravention of the provisions of this Code shall be subject to appropriate action taken by the Company.

Persons governed by this Code who violate the provisions of this Code shall be subject to disciplinary action by the company which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, and ineligibility for future participation in Employees Stock Option Scheme etc. Any amount collected under this clause shall be remitted to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the SEBI Act by way of the link available on the homepage of SEBI's website (www.sebi.gov.in) under the head "Click here to make payment to SEBI IPEF", or in such other manner as may be notified by SEBI from time to time.

- 15.2 It is hereby clarified that notwithstanding any penal action taken by the Company, it shall not in any way preclude SEBI from taking any action in violation of the PIT Regulations or any other Applicable Laws.
- 15.3 The actions on any contravention under the Code shall be initiated jointly by the Compliance Officer and the Chief Financial Officer based on the internal guidelines and with due consultation with the Managing Director of the Company. Any contravention of the Code along with the actions taken on the same shall be placed before the Audit Committee for its record.
- 15.4 Under Section 15G of the SEBI Act any Insider who indulges in insider trading in contravention of the PIT Regulations is liable to a penalty which shall not be less than ten lakh rupees, but which may extend to twenty-five crore rupees or three times the amount of profits made out of insider trading, whichever is higher. Under Section 24 of the SEBI Act, anyone who contravenes or abets the contraventions of the provisions of the SEBI Act or of any Rules or regulations made thereunder, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to ten years, or with fine, which may extend to twenty five crore rupees or both. If any person fails to pay the penalty so imposed, such person shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than one month, but which may extend to ten years or with fine, which may extend to twenty-five crore rupees or with both.
- 15.5 In case it is observed by the Company/Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of PIT Regulations, then the Company shall promptly inform the stock exchange(s) where the concerned securities are traded, in such form and such manner as per the format specified by SEBI in Annexure 10.

The Person against whom information has been furnished by the Company / Compliance Officer to SEBI for violations of the PIT Regulations/Code, shall provide all information and render necessary co-operation as may be required by the Company / Compliance Officer or SEBI in this connection.

16. AUTHORITY TO MAKE ALTERATIONS:

The Board of Directors are authorized to make such alterations to this Code as considered appropriate, subject, to the condition that such alterations shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the PIT Regulations or any amendments thereto.

Any part of this Code, if at any time, is found to be inconsistent with the PIT Regulations or any amendments thereto, the provisions of the PIT Regulations shall prevail over this Code till such time appropriate alterations are made herein.

17. GENERAL:

A copy of the PIT Regulations is enclosed. All Designated Persons are advised to peruse the PIT Regulations carefully and acquaint themselves with all the provisions contained therein. The Compliance Officer will be available for clarification/assistance that may be necessary.
