Classification | INTERNAL

At PFL, we value your growth and encourage you to explore opportunities that align with your skills and aspirations. The Internal Job Posting (IJP) process is designed to make career mobility easier and more transparent, so you can take charge of your development within the organization.

1. Purpose

- 1.1 To provide employees with the opportunity to apply for open roles within PFL.
- 1.2 To support career progression by enabling employees to explore positions that match their competencies and interests.
- 1.3 To maintain fairness and transparency in the internal hiring process.

2. Who Can Apply

- 2.1 Employees on-roll up to VP level who have completed 18 months in their current role.
- 2.2 Employees with a performance rating of Meets Expectations or above.
- 2.3 Employees without active disciplinary actions or Performance Improvement Plans (PIP).

3. How it works

- 3.1 IJPs for identified roles are generally published on a weekly basis.
- 3.2 Employees typically have 7 working days to apply for an open IJP
- 3.3 Applications should be submitted via HRMS along with an updated resume.
- 3.4 Employees may apply for multiple IJPs, provided they meet eligibility criteria
- 3.5 All applications are assessed through the standard evaluation process

4. Movement timelines

- 4.1 After selection, employees are expected to move to the new role within a reasonable handover period (up to 60 days)
- 4.2 Movement dates are agreed upon by the current and new reporting managers.
- 4.3 In exceptional cases, timelines may be extended with mutual agreement between both business heads.

5. Withdrawal

- 5.1 If an employee withdraws after selection and approval, they may be restricted from applying for IJPs for a defined period (typically 12 months).
- 5.2 Employees can withdraw their application before the interview stage, subject to vacancy status.

6. Exceptions

- 6.1 Any exception to these guidelines requires approval from Head – BHR, TMOD & TA

Our Commitment

Internal mobility is an important part of our talent philosophy. We encourage you to use this process to explore opportunities that support your career growth within PFL.
