1. Objective

Poonawalla Fincorp Limited (Poonawalla Fincorp/PFL/ Company), is a Non-Banking Finance Company (NBFC) that specializes in consumer and MSME financing. We foster a dynamic and cohesive work environment. This includes programs focused on developing future leaders, enhancing talent development, and planning for succession. We aim to strengthen our connection with employees, enabling us to address their concerns and celebrate their achievements effectively.

We are committed to uphold and protect human rights in all aspects of our business operations. We strive to stay informed about new laws, regulations, and international standards related to human rights¹, as well as best practices and stakeholder expectations. We aim to regularly assess and update our policies and practices in response to these developments. We oppose and prohibit any form of human rights violation entirely, including discrimination, harassment, unsafe working conditions, forced labour, child labour.

The objective of formulating this policy is:

- I. To affirm our dedication to upholding internationally recognized human rights principles and standards.
- II. To ensure no human rights violations occur, in line with the established standards and the scope of this policy.
- III. To promote a discrimination-free workplace where everyone feels safe and valued and ensure equal opportunity.
- IV. To ensure fair and transparent remuneration practices
- V. To provide employees with necessary training and awareness on our Human Rights policy.

2. Scope and applicability

We are committed to address and minimise any negative human rights impacts associated with our operations, even when these impacts arise from our business relationships and not directly from our own actions. This policy aims to embed human rights considerations into our operations to safeguard the welfare of all our stakeholders. The policy extends to:

- i. Employees (full-time, part-time, contract, interns),
- ii. Lending Service Provider (LSPs), Technology Service Providers (TSPs), Direct selling Agents (DSA), KYC/Verification Service Providers, Customer Lifecycle Service Providers

This policy covers the following issues relevant to us:

- i. Safe and respectful workplace
- ii. Non-discrimination and equal opportunity
- iii. Fair wages and equal remuneration
- iv. Prevention of slavery, forced labour and child labour

¹ ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, Universal Declaration of Human Rights, United Nations Global Compact Principles

- v. Grievance redressal mechanism
- vi. Communication and trainings

To uphold our commitment to respecting the human rights of our employees, we rely on a diverse range of internal guidelines, policies, and governance documents, including but not limited to:

- i. Code of Conduct and Discipline Rules
- ii. POSH Policy
- iii. Health and safety policy

3. Areas covered

I. Safe and respectful workplace

Poonawalla Fincorp is committed to provide a safe and healthy workplace for all our employees. We prioritize creating a productive environment by minimizing the chances of accidents, injuries, and health risks. By maintaining compliance with applicable laws, we strive to create a safe and protected workplace for everyone. For further information, our Health and Safety policy can be referred.

Additionally, we are dedicated to maintaining a workplace that is free from harassment and violence. We have zero tolerance for any form of bullying, derogatory language, sexual harassment, intimidation or retaliation irrespective of levels/reporting structure. Employees are encouraged to report concerns, without fear of retaliation via established grievance mechanisms which are detailed below.

II. Prevention and prohibition of sexual harassment at workplace

Poonawalla Fincorp acknowledges the importance of a harassment-free workplace in enabling employees to fully engage and contribute at work. We are dedicated to upholding the rights of all employees by ensuring a work environment free from sexual harassment that may be physical, verbal, or psychological. Our policies and procedures are carefully crafted to prevent and address any occurrences of harassment. Our Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) policy protects all our employees regardless of gender, ensuring a truly inclusive approach to tackle workplace harassment. For further information, POSH Policy⁴ can be referred.

III. Non-Discrimination and Equal opportunity

Poonawalla Fincorp values diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment where individuals from all backgrounds feel respected, valued and empowered. The company's human rights policy prohibits any form of discrimination, harassment, or abuse within our workplace. We have a zero tolerance policy towards any form of discrimination based on race, gender, age, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, national origin, socioeconomic status or other characteristics. Employment decisions, including hiring, promotion, training and compensation, are based solely on merit, skills and performance.

IV. Fair wage and equal remuneration

Poonawalla Fincorp is committed to fair and transparent remuneration practices for all employees regardless of gender, age, religion or any other characteristic. We ensure that individuals receive remuneration solely based on their skills, experience and performance. In addition to ensuring equal remuneration, we ensure timely payment and adhere to all national and local minimum wage laws, including mandated benefits. All our permanent employees receive compensation that exceeds the minimum wage requirements.

V. Prevention of slavery, forced labour and child labour

We uphold fundamental labour standards and strictly prohibit child labour, forced labour², or human trafficking³ within our operations. We have zero-tolerance towards any of these practices.

4. Grievance redressal mechanism

Poonawalla Fincorp has established a board-approved Breach of Integrity and Whistleblower (Vigil Mechanism) Policy⁵ to address integrity-related issues. This policy encourages employees and directors to report concerns about the company's operations or work environment, including potential breaches of company policies, without fear of retaliation.

Additionally, our employees, business partners, suppliers and contractors can also raise human rights concerns confidentially and without fear of retaliation via:
