1. Objective

To define process manual and aid Employees or New Joiners who are required to relocate from their current location to a different location in line with the organization requirements.

2. Scope

The Relocation Manual is applicable for existing employees as well as new joiners.

3. Reimbursement Applicability:

Relocation assistance is payable only for inter-city transfers or when the shortest motorable road distance between old and new residential addresses is ≥ 50 km, and the employee changes to primary residence (new lease/ownership within 60 days).

Relocation Re-imbursement will cover the following Items as captured below. The overall relocation budget is capped as per the grade and distance of such movement, and employees can avail all or relevant benefits they want to claim within the defined budget as per the grid:

Distance	Grade wise Limits (in INR)
	Assistant Manager to Manager	Senior Manager.to Chief Manager	Assistant Vice President to Vice President	Senior Vice President & above
Inter City or > 50 KM and <500 KM	60,000/-	80,000/-	1,00,000/-	1,50,000/-
Above 501 KM	75,000/-	1,00,000/-	1,25,000/-	2,00,000/-
House rent brokerage (upper limit within the overall limit defined above)	25,000/-	30,000/-	40,000/-	55,000/-

3.1 Travel Expenses - One time Travel cost for Self & Family (dependents up to max of three (3) people) to the posting City (Travel Mode – Air, Train, Bus, Private Cab /Self Car)

3.2 Transportation of goods & vehicle - One time shifting of car and household goods which is inclusive of insurance, octroi, packing & unpacking, loading & unloading and any other expenses incurred for movement of goods & vehicles.

3.3 Lodging, Boarding & Food Expenses -Temporary accommodation reimbursement is allowed for up to 7 days before or after DOJ, extendable by an additional 7 days with written approval from the Vertical Head, subject to the overall relocation budget.

3.4 Claims must be submitted in a maximum of two installments within 12 months from the date of joining (for new hires) or the effective date of transfer (for internal moves).

4. Optional Local Assistance:

For same-city office shifts that mandate a residence change, HR may approve a local assistance cap of ₹10,000–₹25,000 (no travel/food/boarding), against actual mover & brokerage bills only.

5. Process:

5.1 Relocation benefits to be offered by HR Point of Contact (POC) to outstation candidates at the time of Offer or internal movement initiated by Business / Job rotation / Internal Job Posting as applicable.

5.2 HR POC to mention the relocation benefit (Yes/No) at the time of offer approval or while initiating Relocation for an employee.

5.3. Benefits are not applicable for relocation to hometown (defined as permanent address in HRMS) or for self-initiated moves (requested by employee without business mandate).

5.4 Candidate / Employee to claim reimbursement of relocation expenses before 18th of the month.

5.5 Payments to be made post validation by HR team.

5.6 All payments will be made along with the salary for the current month if details are submitted on or before 18th of the month, else it will be paid in the subsequent month salary.

5.7 Relocation queries to be addressed by HR POC through HR Helpdesk.

5.8 Payments will be processed as reimbursements against actual bills and treated for tax purposes as per prevailing laws.

6. Retention Clause:

If any employee leaves the organization before completion of twenty-four (24) months from the date of payout, the full amount paid under re-location re-imbursement benefit will be recovered from his/her full & final settlement. This clause applies to voluntary resignations. It does not apply in cases of company-initiated separation, redundancy.

7. Exclusions:
